FLOOR DEBATE

March 28, 2002 LB 791

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That wasn't mentioned, I don't believe, because the gambling interests didn't want that on the ballot to show that at the same time they're giving them a bouquet of flowers, there's a serpent in the middle.

SENATOR BOURNE: But you know as well as I do, Senator Chambers, that oftentimes initiatives on the ballot require regulations and laws to flesh out, and that's what we did here. So...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, but Senator Bourne you realize that if they had acknowledged that they're going to create or contribute to the problem of compulsive gambling, it would have diminished their chances. But here's the next question I want to ask you. You know the public voted for term limits.

SENATOR BOURNE: Yes, I do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you in favor of term limits?

SENATOR BOURNE: Well, I think it's poor policy. I personally voted no on the term limits.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's not what I'm asking you.

SENATOR BOURNE: Do...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think they were...do you think it was the right thing for the public to do?

SENATOR BOURNE: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think it was the right thing for them to do in putting the lottery in place?

SENATOR BOURNE: I...yes. I don't feel the lottery wreaks the havoc that you imply that it does.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If you had your way about it...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.
